

AMERIPRIDE DRIVES TOWARD SUSTAINABILITY GOALS WITH EV TRUCK FLEET

Case Study: AmeriPride, an Aramark Company, Vernon, CA

AmeriPride, acquired by Aramark, is a leading uniform and linen rental and supply company in the U.S. and Canada, with annual revenue of approximately $600 million.

CUSTOMER

AmeriPride, an Aramark company, provides uniforms and workplace supplies to more than 300,000 clients across a variety of industries nationwide. Every day, the Company picks up, launders, and delivers more than 2,000 tons of clean laundry.

CHALLENGES

Become top efficient fleet in the industry

Lower carbon footprint

Reduce energy consumption

SOLUTIONS

Conduct site audit to determine current utility capacity

Install EV charging stations

Implement charger station management software

RESULTS

20% of fleet now all electric, zero-emission trucks.

Easy to use monitoring system provides real-time info to manage alarms, diagnostics, Automatic Demand Response Programs